2006 Reforming Marriage Conference

The Christian Home

Bringing Up Godly Children

Saturday, July 22, 2006

9:15 am—4:30pm

Our culture, including our Christian culture, is confused about many things. Perhaps no confusion runs so deep and is so important as the confusion surrounding the duty of raising godly children.

Douglas and Nancy are wonderful teachers in this fundamental duty of Christian parents. Their teaching is biblical, practical, full of wisdom and it works.

Please join us for a day of teaching that will provide years of joyful and fruitful labor in your homes.

Douglas Wilson and his wife Nancy live in Moscow, Idaho where Douglas serves as the pastor of Christ Church. He has authored numerous books on classical Christian education, the family, the church, and the reformed faith, including Reforming Marriage, Future Men, Her Hand In Marriage, and To a Thousand Generations. Douglas is a founding board member of Logos School, a senior fellow of theology at New St. Andrews College, serves as an instructor at Greyfriar's Hall, and is the editor of Credenda/Agenda magazine.

Nancy has written The Fruit of Her Hands and Praise Her in the Gates, books about the duties of Christian wives and mothers. Married for thirty years, Douglas and Nancy have three children and ten grandkids.
